

Notes from the Office

Dear 4-H Family:

The fair is coming soon! I am looking forward to seeing you at the fair. Remember that the important part of junior fair is the opportunity to learn more, make friends and showcase the talents of our children. The competition and awards are a secondary part of what 4-H and junior fair is all about. The next issue of the Gazette will be sent in the fall. Until next time....

Sincerely,

Beth Miller

Address Check

Each 4-H household should receive one copy of the Gazette. If you are receiving more than one copy, please contact the office. We may have a discrepancy among family members' emails or we may not have blended families together. Also, if you know of a family who is not receiving this newsletter have them call the office.

Campers' Corner
A total of 168 people attended camp this summer. Thanks to all who participated, it was a very fun and successful week! We do have some items from lost and found at the office.

See enclosed fair schedule.

Grading Policy

A reminder of our grading policy for all 4-H projects. This system pertains to all clothing, nutrition, special interest and livestock projects. The advisor's and judge's grades will be averaged to determine a member's overall project grade. The two grades hold equal weight and will be averaged as follows:

A + A = A Final Grade

A + B = B Final Grade

A + C = B Final Grade

B + B = B Final Grade

B + C = C Final Grade

C + C = C Final Grade

Projects that receive B's or C's will not be eligible to compete for placings or awards in graded classes. All members are still allowed to participate in non-graded events. The only exception to this rule on awards would be if there are no A's in a particular class; then the best of class could be selected. This rule is exclusive per project. A lower grade on one project does not eliminate a member in another category. For example, if a member received an "A" in woodworking and a "B" in cooking; she/he could compete for awards in woodworking but not cooking.

Remember that project judging and fair participation are always optional! Your advisor grade makes your project and 4-H year complete.

State Fair Participation

A 4-H member may participate in state project judging as many times as they qualify and state fair guidelines allow. If a member chooses not to go to state judging, eligible alternates will be offered the opportunity. If you are contacted to go to state with your project, please let the office know as quickly as possible if you will go. Members must go to state fair on the day and time that Auglaize County is scheduled to participate. We will not request time changes for any state fair event.

4-H CLOVER AWARD

Each judge will be given the opportunity to award a 4-H Clover Award. This award will be a judge's choice award – given to the 4-H member that he/she felt had the best interview about their project. In other words – “the kid that got the JUDGE excited about the project”! They may not be a state fair qualifier or even a county award winner. They may not be the most knowledgeable or have the best project book or display. This winner made the judge want to listen all day about their project!

Grades for Members Not Exhibiting

Any 4-H member, who does not attend their scheduled project judging, will be assigned an advisor's grade only. This policy applies to judging prior to and during the fair. The advisor's grade will allow the child to have a completed project and receive credit for the 4-H year. Members not exhibiting at the fair do not receive fair passes.

You must be present to sell your animal unless you have been granted prior permission by the Junior Fair Board. This applies to poultry and hogs also—even though your project animals will not be present.

Drug Use Notification Forms (DUNE)

Fair officials are planning to use an online option for these forms for the 2022 fair. More details will be coming soon!

Health Papers

Please refer to the fair book or the Auglaize Co. Fair website for requirements. Goat and sheep members are reminded to have scrapie tags and their completed forms.

Grand & Reserve Champions

Grand and reserve champion market animals (excluding broilers and rabbits) will be reviewed at the carcass review on Wednesday, August 10, 7:00 p.m. at Kah's Meats.

Thank You Letters

Every year, many people donate their time and money to support the Junior Fair. Please send a thank you to your award donor or purchased your animal at the sale. You also want to thank the contending bidder on your livestock. Without that second bidder, there is no sale. These letters make a difference to these supporters. Do your part to help insure this kind of support in the future. A SPECIAL NOTE TO ADVISORS AND PARENTS - please see that members follow through on these thank yous. With your help, we hope to increase the number of thank yous being written. We seem to get more comments every year from buyers and donors that they never receive a thank you. No project is complete until the thank you is written!! The strongest three words for securing and maintaining support are Please and Thank You.

Gracias! Merci!! Mahalo!!!

IMPORTANT LIVESTOCK SALE INFORMATION

Market Animals

A reminder to review the rules regarding terminal and nonterminal sale animals. You will need to designate the destination of each animal as it goes across the scale at weigh-in, no exceptions.

Livestock Sale Buyer Pre-registration

As you invite local businesses to attend the sale and support all junior fair livestock exhibitors, please mention that they can pre-register for the sale on Thursday, August 4 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Piehl Arena. Many buyers appreciate this opportunity so they do not have to wait in line on sale days.

Multiple Buyer Forms

The Sale Committee gives the buyers a form to use if they have multiple buyers for one animal. These forms are for buyer use only, members may not use these to recruit bids! Thank you for your cooperation.
